

It's unbelievable that after spending 10's of thousands of dollars, community broadcasters,(who serve small unserved communities) will be replaced by Verizon and ATT phone services. Is this in the public interest?