

The Godaddy commercial wss tasteless and digusting. I don't understand how you could let something like that on national TV. I had my children watching the Super Bowl and didn't appreciate the viewing. How do you explain this kind of action to children watching a family event. Shame on you.