

I want to see studies completed to show the safety of Smart Meters and the effects of Smart Meter radiation on human health. There are too many complaints of health related issues from Smart Meters to allow continued installation and use without long term health risk studies. Using the precautionary principle the installation of Smart Meters should be stopped and any use halted until safety can be guaranteed 100%.