

It is imperative that the markets are given direct access too and the benefits of Global Broadband.

Further bureaucratic delays gives other Countries a greater advantage over the Country whose technology advances is currently hamstrung.

What a petty!