Re: Ex Parte Communication in WC Docket 09-197

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On February 19, 2013 the undersigned counsel for Nexus Communications, Inc. (“Nexus”), along with Christopher W. Savage of Davis Wright Tremaine LLP, met with Alex Minard and Michelle Schaefer of the Wireline Competition Bureau’s Telecommunications Access Policy Division, to discuss Nexus’ pending applications to be designated an eligible telecommunications carrier (“ETC”) in the 10 states for which the Commission has jurisdiction over wireless ETC designations.

At the meeting, we discussed the fact that Nexus’ Lifeline compliance plan was recently approved by the Commission and that the review process for Lifeline ETC compliance plans fully addresses all issues relevant to designating Nexus as an ETC.¹ In light of the approval of Nexus’ compliance plan, Nexus requested that the Commission expeditiously approve its ETC applications.

Respectfully submitted,

Danielle Frappier
Counsel to Nexus Communications, Inc.
