Paragraph 2 attached statement.

Bigredwire.com insures that our customer's information is protected against unauthorized disclosure by not selling or disclosing any information to other companies, except as needed to establish service with our wholesale carrier.

Bigredwire.com never uses spam or telemarketing to advertise its services.

Our customers use on-line accounts to access information and call records. All accounts require a password and encryption is used to protect against the interception of data between the server and our customers. If a customer forgets their password the password is sent only to the e-mail address registered in the customer's account.

Employee access to the customer records is controlled through password protected user IDs.
