

Exhibits List A1-G

Charyl Zehfus reply comment
FCC 03-137 and 12-357
March 5, 2013

Please enter into the record, read and consider the attached documents, A1-G.

Exhibits A1-A6 scanned from public records in Customer Complaints file,
Public Service Commission (PSC) of Wisconsin

Exhibit A1

Letter: Robert Norcross, Administrator, Gas and Energy Div., PSC, to Ms. Char Zehfus,
Sheboygan, WI, February 10, 2011

Exhibit A2

Letter: Rick Potter, Principle Technology Consultant, Alliant Energy, to Charyl Zehfus, May 13, 2011

Exhibit A3

PSC Customer Contact 140484, Customer 103918 (Filmanlowicz), December 2011 (Alliant Energy)

Exhibit A4

PSC Customer Contact 142515, Customer 105411 (Stuessel), May 2012 (Xcel Energy)

Exhibit A5

PSC Customer Contact 136224, Customer 101075 (Secor), May/June 2011 (Xcel Energy)

Exhibit A6

PSC Customer Contact 138770, Customer 98653 (Jakusz), September 2011 (Alliant Energy)

Exhibit B

Memorandum: Poki Stewart Namkung, M.D., M.P.H., Health Officer, County of Santa Cruz,
CA, to Santa Cruz County Board of Supervisors, January 13, 2012, page 15

Exhibit C

Environmental Protection Agency webpage, Wireless Overview from <http://www.epa.gov/radtown/wireless-tech.html>

Exhibit D

Federal Communications Commission Disability web page from <http://www.fcc.gov/disability>

Exhibit E1

3% of population has Electromagnetic Sensitivity (ES)

IEQ: Indoor Environmental Quality: A project of the National Institute of Building Sciences (NIBS) with funding support from The Architectural and Transportation Barriers Compliance Board (Access Board)

Page 4, paragraph 3

Exhibit E2

Access Board's ADA statement about ES

IEQ: Indoor Environmental Quality: A project of the National Institute of Building Sciences (NIBS) with funding support from The Architectural and Transportation Barriers Compliance Board (Access Board)

Page 4, paragraph 5 onto page 5, paragraph 1

Exhibit F

Access accommodation policy suggestions for people with Electromagnetic Sensitivity (ES) relating to RF services and equipment.

Exhibit G

H.R. 6358 Cell Phone Right to Know Act (Introduced in House - IH) Beginning August 3, 2012.
SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE...