

The other evening we were awakened by two police officers alleging that a 911 call had been made at our neighbors residence. They were checking the other two homes on the street to see if we were okay? It was 2am - the neighbor who the police said called - said he did not call! Is there any way in Big Horn County to pinpoint where the call came from and what number called? Or are we too remote?