

After we have seen the consequences of Rupert Murdoch's shoddy business and journalistic practices, the public, especially the residents of Southern California, demand that he not be given a special permit to purchase the Los Angeles Times. Please side with the public, not corporations that do not have our interests in mind.