

I just read that the FCC is reviewing its policies on expletives and certain types of nudity on television/radio. PLEASE do not relax these standards any more than they already are. There are so few television shows that I feel comfortable watching in front of my family now! Keep some decent standards! Please!