

I tried to register my phone number thru Conns Call Home and they told me they could not register the number because of the provider. As my son has tried to call me all day for the first time since he was put in Garza West 15 days ago, this was very upsetting to me.