

Please DO NOT relax your decency standards for cursing or nudity. As a high school teacher I witness daily the degeneration of morals, especially sexual morals, in our youth. We are becoming a sexually depraved nation filled with sexual violence. The media should not be lowering its standards but raising them to help stem this immoral tide. And women are the greatest victims of this lax moral code.