

I understand that the FCC is considering allowing an increase in nudity and profanity on television. Please do not debase the American airwaves any more than it already is. Do the right thing, for families and all people in general. What would you prefer that a loved one see and hear when they turn on the television?