

I oppose any changes by the FCC in regards to language and nudity. It is absurd that this is being considered. I don't want to have to constantly censor and explain to my children why it's not ok today these things even though they will hear it constantly if the proposed changes are made.