

I cannot believe that changing this policy would be anything other than aiding an already morally corrupt media! Please consider all the complaints. Our families are being threatened enough without you aiding in the moral decline.