

Please, no profanity, nudity of partial or full nature, on today's TV. It is highly important to young people and societal mores' to be selective in what is perused on public broadcasting. We must protect the innocent, naive and unsuspecting in our country.