

Do we really need to expose our children to more immorality and filth by allowing the use of the "f" word and nudity on television. They are exposed to too much already and has definitely had a negative impact on them. Our nation has enough problems to deal with without adding more. Bring back the 50's TV morality.