

I am writing to protest your consideration of allowing the "f" word and even more nudity on public TV. How low can you go? I will not tolerate the "f" word. If you want to live an immoral life that is your business, but you have no right to force it on the rest of us. The popularity of the Christian shows on TV should be a clue that not everyone wants trash in their homes.