

Please keep TV appropriate for families. Even though we can opt to not watch programs that show nudity, use profane language, etc., when "surfing" channels, it can be seen by children. America doesn't need more immorality. This country is quickly becoming so evil that I don't see how God can put off our destruction much longer.