

We do not need to allow the F word nor nudity on TV.. children are exposed to so much and do not need to be exposed to this.. yes, parents can turn off the television, but for those parents that are not responsible, what is this doing to our children today when so many are put in front of the television.. please keep the ban on these things!