

I'm requesting to lift up family programs. All this Gds, mf, mf-ings, f-ings, is not part of most family's lifestyles in America. We need more programs, promoting families loving each other; dealing with family issues; comedies, and much more. To the person who reads this. What kind of words are used at your parents, children, or you own birthday parties?