

I strongly urge you not to change the current restrictions on the f word, the s word and full frontal nudity for women on television. Our nation has degenerated enough with all the trash allowed on there now. Please do not grease the slope further with these changes. Remember, it is you who will answer to God when you stand in judgement. Take the right stand. Take the moral stand. Do what is right.