

I object to the FCC loosening up on its censor quota. I have small children who enjoy watching non children TV. Allowing more adult language on shows as well as nudity will influence them negatively and my family will not watch those shows.