

As a citizen concerned about the morality of our Nation, I would urge the FCC to not change the current laws about public media nudity and sexually explicit language.

Thank you