

Please retain this last vestige of decency on our public broadcast networks and stations. One should be able to express themselves WITHOUT these two words, and pictures. If they cannot, they are NOT very good communicators. We are offended at the lax way the general public can talk...please not let it intrude on the privacy of my home and family.