

If you allow the swearing and nudity that is being considered with this change I will throw every radio and TV I own in the trash. Where America is going with these types of issues make me sick to my stomach and I would expect nothing less than a world filled sickness, corruption and dismay by the time my grandson is old enough to drive.