

I strongly object to any rule changes that would allow nudity and profanity on standard networks, many cable shows are offered for anyone who think you have to be insulted with 4 letter words and naked people to be entertained. Our homes and children should not be assaulted with this programming on regular TV and or Radio programs.