

We are so tired of the profanity that comes across our tv screen. We don't allow or use either the f-word, the s-word or any other profane language in our home and would appreciate not having it included in regular tv programs. A great author once said and I agree with him. "Anyone who uses profanity doesn't have a good grasp of the English Language!" Thank you, Spencer and Jessie Lofland