Re: Ex Parte Presentation, CG Docket No. 10-145

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On April 5, 2013, Krista Witanowski, Assistant Vice President, Regulatory Affairs, CTIA – The Wireless Association® (“CTIA”), and Matthew Gerst, Director, State Regulatory and External Affairs, CTIA, spoke via telephone with Matthew Berry, chief of staff to Commissioner Ajit Pai, to discuss the above captioned proceeding.

Consistent with its comments and reply comments in the above-captioned proceeding,¹ CTIA discussed its belief that section 718 of the Twenty-First Century Communications and Video Accessibility Act of 2010 (“CVAA”) should be implemented in a manner consistent with section 716, including affording providers and manufacturers flexibility in the manner in which they comply with section 718’s accessibility mandate. As CTIA has noted in prior advocacy, Section 2 of the CVAA provides covered entities the certainty that they will not generally be held responsible for third party content, products or services. CTIA suggested that the Commission consider the applicability of Section 2 of the CVAA in any forthcoming action relating to the responsibility of mobile Internet browser manufacturers and providers for Internet content, applications or service in a manner consistent the Commission’s interpretation in this proceeding.²
