

Don't you dare eliminate the current broadcasting standards with respect to profanity and nudity. People wonder what has happened to this nation with respect to morals and ethics and the liberalization of the media has a lot to do with it - including violence which has led to the crazies committing mass shootings. If anything tighten up the standards.