

I am totally opposed to relaxing decency standard which the FCC is considering. We don't need any further degradation of bad or inappropriate language to be broadcast, along with even fleeting glimpses of frontal nudity. It's bad enough currently. Please do not relax those standards any further. Thanks you