

I know the FCC has a hard time balancing freedom of speech with basic decency when it comes to obscenity and morality issues. However, you need to consider the nation as a whole, including children. The right to free speech is fine if you are standing on a street corner, or printing a newspaper. However when it comes to broadcasting to every home in America, that's another story. I say KEEP THE BAN on the F word and on nudity in any form.....
