

Those concepts that we throw around without reverence cause us to treat them without reverence. As the "F" word becomes more common, the "F" practice is becoming more common. VD becomes rampant; adultery skyrockets; divorce skyrockets, destroying the lives of countless children. And most importantly, God is displeased. Please keep television censored from such words. People who wish to hear them can buy the movies that have them.

And further, exposing children to nudity at a young age causes lust to begin at ages when children don't have the capability of understanding its dangers and resisting it. They will become promiscuous and calloused towards purity from a young age--already out of control sexually before they can think rationally about it. VD and abortions will skyrocket, and guilt along with it. The home will continue to disintegrate, as husbands and wives cannot trust one another due to their sexual anarchy. Please keep nudity off of the television.
