

As a mother of two young children I am against changing the indecency standards. There is no reason that naked women need to be used or shown on any television program ever. It does not benefit anyone. I do not think it is ok for my son to see this or my daughter to think this is ok for women. I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief or fleeting.?

The Supreme Court has confirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies regarding expletives and nudity, especially during times when children are likely to be watching or listening.

Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest and I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.
