

I oppose any changes in the current indecency standards to TV and radio. Relaxing the current policy would not serve the best interest of the people. I urge the FCC to reject any policy allowing expletives or nudity on the TV or radio.