

I urge you to not change the FCC rules regarding profanity and nudity on the airways of our media. It is not in the best interest of the public and especially children who are watching during prime time or any time. Please consider the family and the moral issues that face us every day and keep the indecencies off the television.

Thank you

Ramona Martin