

I urge you, as a concerned father, that you do not proceed with changes to your current policy. Your proposed changes are offensive to me and I do not want my children to be subject to the filth you are considering adding.