

Please continue to help us protect our children from the filth that is becoming so common place in our society. There is no need for anymore inappropriate language or nudity on television than there already is. While I am capable of censoring what my child watches, allowing even more language and nudity will make it even more difficult. I believe the amount of profanity and "bedroom scenes" as it is, is responsible for the disrespect for others that kids display today.