

I want to write my strong opposition to any attempt to relax enforcement of or change existing policies regarding expletives and nudity. The policies are meant to protect the public and especially the children, who are the most vulnerable members of our society, from offensive, inappropriate, and damaging exposure to expletives and nudity.

The Supreme Court has confirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies regarding expletives and nudity, especially during times when children are likely to be watching or listening.

As more and more parents are unable to adequately supervise their children due to work and other demands, please consider the needs of those who are too young to protect themselves and strongly use the authority given the FCC to keep our airwaves clean. Thank you.
