

Please do not relax the standards to allow even more profanity and nudity to be released into our airwaves and our homes. There are many already that have apparently been allowed to use any terms and nudity available on the internet and cable networks for both television and radio.

Allowing further crude and debasing language does nothing to improve life for our citizens. I am sincerely against the FCC dropping the restrictions.

Thank you for taking time to read my opinions.