

I urge you to not allow demoralizing language, nudity, or any other immoral behavior on public television, radio or any other media outlets.

It's reprehensible that you would even consider such behavior on those named above! You wonder why society has become so unruly and heartless, well, here's one reason.

Stop encouraging bad behavior and start airing good characteristic behavior.

This is shameful even for consideration!!