

I oppose changing the current FCC indecency standards that prohibit television and radio stations from broadcasting expletives and nudity on the public airwaves.

The Supreme Court has confirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies regarding this type of language and nudity, especially during times children may be watching or listening.

Changing the current policy in the name of "free speech" would serve no one's interest except the program desiring to use that type of language or expose bodily parts.

Please give due and proper consideration to this request.

Thank you.
