

I agree with the proposed changes to language restrictions. As a parent, I am willing and able to be responsible for raising my kids. TV should reflect the real world.