

I understand the FCC is considering dropping current broadcast decency standards that ban explicit profanity and "non-sexual" nudity on network television and local radio stations

I am totally against this action.

G. Dan Boone