

Cecency stadards on prime time TV need to remain the same or even be improved! Kids are having to mature too quickly and are seeing things that take away their innocence and childhood too early in life. Please be considerate of our families and moral standards by not allowing nudity or profane language on prime time television.

Thank you!