

I understand that the FCC is dropping its ban against nudity and the F word on television and radio. As a mother and retired teacher, I strongly suggest that this path is not followed! The effect of such programming on children and the society in general, would be devastating. Please rethink this decision.