

To Whom it May Concern:

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief or "fleeting."

The Supreme Court has confirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies regarding expletives and nudity, especially during times when children are likely to be watching or listening.

Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest and I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.

We are considering getting rid of our "regular tv watching"...and going with hulu or netflix. Its already bad enough - and if this goes through I will encourage everyone I know to do the same.

Do you personally watch TV with your kids and Grandkids - and feel this is ok...

Please don't compromise the little bit of integrity you have left...
