

We have growing children down here in MS and a couple of them are teens and they are already bombarded with all kinds of immoral things on tv anyway...I have a feeling that my wife and I will soon just not have cable anymore and just keep the tv off because what our children see and hear makes a big difference to us...I would urge you guys to just use common sense...TV used to have values shown and appreciated now its just garbage and more garbage...