

I just received news that the FCC is considering lifting the ban on indecency on the airwaves, such as expletives and nudity, no matter how brief. I am voicing my strong opinion against any such decision and beg you to reconsider any such action!

Thank you for listening to me--and for giving me the opportunity to express my concern.