

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief or "fleeting."

Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest and I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations. I realize that I, as a parent have the ability (and responsibility) to turn off such programming as we see fit, however, the people who do enjoy this type of relaxed programming can already access it easily. I implore the FCC to maintain the current standard as a final stronghold to decency in America!!
